Fort Worth, Texas

Career Objective

I am a highly motivated high school senior with a strong work ethic, an established sense of self, and a dedication to engaged leadership. I aspire to become a successful production stage manager for live theatre and entertainment, confident in my goals after having obtained extensive experience in my high school, community, and professional theatres. To this end, I am seeking a collegiate program that will provide me education from professionals at the top of their fields and opportunities to practice my craft on and off campus.

ABOUT ME

My name is Emma Grace Tysinger and I am seventeen years old. My passion is theatre, and I am heavily involved in school and community productions. I also enjoy baking for my friends and family, especially my "famous" brown butter chocolate chip cookies! I love my dog, Ruth, my best friends, Ella and Hazel, and my parents. My mom is my built-in best friend, always willing to get a coffee and stroll Target. My dad, a professional stage manager, introduced me to the career and has been an awesome mentor.
